Astellas Debuts on Dow Jones Sustainability Asia Pacific Index

Tokyo, Japan, September 27, 2011 - Astellas Pharma Inc. (Tokyo:4503, "Astellas") announced that it has been included for the first time in the Dow Jones Sustainability Asia Pacific Index ("DJSI Asia Pacific"), the Asia Pacific version of the Dow Jones Sustainability Index* ("DJSI"), one of the world's premier indexes for social responsible investment (SRI).

The DJSI, jointly compiled by Dow Jones & Company of the United States and Sustainable Asset Management (SAM) AG of Switzerland** is a leading SRI index which assesses and selects leading sustainability-driven companies in terms of economic, environmental, and social criteria.

Specifically designed for companies in the developed Asia Pacific markets including Japan, the DJSI Asia Pacific has selected 156 companies, including 79 Japanese companies, which are leading the way in terms of sustainability among the 600 companies in the region.

Astellas' CSR-based management program is a means through which it seeks to achieve sustained enhancement of its enterprise value while remaining acutely aware of its social responsibilities, taking a broad view that considers economics, society, and humanity so that it can exist not just as a market entity, but also as a valuable member of society. Astellas promotes this as fundamental policy for its corporate activities. To further strengthen global CSR activities related to Astellas' business strategy, planning and promotion functions for CSR will be transferred from the General Affairs Department to the Corporate Planning Department on October 1, 2011.

Astellas, as a global pharmaceutical company, will continue committing to fulfill its social responsibility by promoting further CSR-based management aspiring to practice its raison d'être "contribute toward improving the health of people around the world through the provision of innovative and reliable pharmaceutical products."
